

Catsfield

Nick Palette

Catsfield is set in the High Weald of East Sussex in the 1960s. It portrays the end of a rural branch line in its last days. The station was inspired by a combination of Hawkhurst and the Kent & East Sussex light railway.

Motive power is mainly SR diesel and the occasional steam loco. Traffic is typical for a small branch line with local passenger and freight trains.

Layout details

Scale	4mm/OO
Region and time period	East Sussex 1960s
Operators	2/3
Size of layout	10ft by 1'6"
Control	DCC

Contact details are:

Phone	07850 017222
Email	n.palette@ntlworld.com